

Architectural drawing of the Bank of America Building, showing a cross-section of the structure. The drawing is oriented vertically on the page. It depicts a multi-story building with a central core and various rooms, including what appears to be a large auditorium or theater on the right side. The drawing includes detailed architectural elements such as windows, doors, and structural supports. The text 'BANK OF AMERICA' is visible on the left side of the drawing, and 'POST' is visible on the right side. The drawing is a technical architectural sketch, likely used for construction or design purposes.
